1000wordsmag.com

1000 Words is an online magazine dedicated to highlighting the best contemporary fine art photography in the UK, and beyond. It encourages critical awareness with photography through engaging articles from widely published arts writers across the world. We are committed to showing portfolios of emerging as well as established photographers in the aim of bringing their work to a wider audience. Often incredibly diverse in terms of subjects, concepts, styles and techniques, yet by covering a wide spectrum of genres 1000 Words intends to make us reconsider the contemporary photograph.
