

WORKSHOPS

Like in the previous editions, we are organising a series of educational workshops this year as well. The workshops are addressed both to amateurs who have just only started their adventure with photography, and to professional photographers. Classes will be conducted by professional graphic artists, photographers and professors from photo schools.

All workshops are in Polish. Limited number of participants, advanced registration required.

More info: warsztaty@fotofestiwal.com